IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MELVIN BELLI TO SPEAK AT USD

SAN DIEGO, Calif.--Toplessness and the "conservative" Supreme Court mark the wide range of subjects Melvin Belli is ready to talk on. One of the nation's best known attorneys, Belli will speak at noon Friday, Nov. 7, at the University of San Diego.

Phi Alpha Delta, law fraternity at the USD School of Law, is bringing Belli for a public speech at the law school, in More Hall, said chapter president Joseph Daly.

Belli earned a reputation in legal circles as "king of torts" and more recently has represented Jack Ruby, who killed Lee Harvey Oswald. He also represented Winne Ruth Judd in her fight to avoid extradition from California to Arizona, where she was convicted many years ago of murder.

In the last few weeks Belli has again been in the headlines as the result of conversations with someone purporting to be the San Francisco area's much feared "Zodiac killer."

Belli is a graduate of Boalt Hall, law school at University of California at Berkeley. He has written more than a dozen books on the law, and is in the process of writing about six more.
